

DR. VAN SCHAICK WRITES OF NEEDS OF THE BELGIANS

Nine items of mercy in the Red Cross budget for Belgium, with an estimated expenditure which will run into seven figures, and a glowing tribute to the Queen of Belgium, are the features of a letter received at the Franklin School today from the Rev. John Van Schaick, president of the Board of Education, now actively engaged in Red Cross work in France and Belgium.

Dr. Van Schaick writes from Le Havre, France, and devotes the first several paragraphs to "the menace of German shells, tearing down upon you with many times express train speed."

Just a Day's Work.
"Today I have been working hard for Belgium," writes Dr. Van Schaick. "I have been making up a budget and asking money to keep a big military hospital; to build a shelter for bombarded Belgian babies; to deal with a new refugee situation; to take starving children out of occupied Belgium; to buy barges and supplies and hire warehouses for a possible evacuating situation when the lines change; to administer our department; to give ambulances; to give 200 mattresses and coverings; and to build portable houses to use for refugees now and more into Belgium later."

Queen a "Dandy Girl."
"When my estimates go to Rickell in Paris tomorrow, they will run into seven figures."

"And I have come to the end without telling you about that most sweet, gracious little body, the shy, intelligent, progressive, loyal, and courageous—Elizabeth, Queen of Belgium."

SIXTEEN MILLION A YEAR METHODIST WAR BUDGET

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 22.—A war budget of $16,000,000 annually for the next five years has been fixed upon by the board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church at its semi-annual session here. It is to be collected from communicants throughout the world and placed in the hands of a special committee headed by one of the bishops.

12 SUFFRAGETTES NOW IN SOLITARY CONFINEMENT HERE

Twelve of the twenty suffragette prisoners in the District Jail today are in solitary confinement.

These are the ones who were transferred from the work house to the Jail for refusing to work "as a protest against an unjust sentence," and on the ground that they are political prisoners. The others, among whom is Miss Alice Paul, were recently sentenced, and are waiting to be sent to the workhouse. Whether they like their sisters, will refuse to obey the rules of the institution and return to the jail to be placed in solitary confinement, as an official said today, "remains to be seen."

Jail officials said today they were having no trouble with their prisoners. Asked when Miss Paul and the pickets recently sentenced will be transferred to the workhouse, the officials said they were not prepared to state.

"Have Heard Nothing."
"We have heard nothing to indicate that the pickets are not conducting themselves in accordance with the rules of the institution," said George S. Wilson, secretary of the Board of Charities. "It is my intention to visit the jail in the course of my regular inspection of penal institutions within a few days."

The twelve prisoners transferred from the workhouse have been deprived of all privileges and will not be allowed to receive visitors nor to send or receive mail during the remainder of their sentences. Two will be released tomorrow and ten November 2.

DESERT MINER FINDS WEALTH AWAITS HIM

RANDSBURG, Cal., Oct. 22.—Joseph Ward, thirty-seven years, a miner on the Mojave desert, was found recently at Higgins Well by C. H. Churchill.

Ward's attorneys have only recently leased to the Du Pont Powder Company the strontianite deposit on the former's claim near Los Angeles. A yearly royalty of $100,000 will be paid Ward. Churchill's arrival at the well was Ward's first knowledge that he was now practically a millionaire.

Why does Brer Rabbit Molasses make folks recall the days of '61?

PROBABLY no other food recalls childhood days to folks who were tots in '61 as Brer Rabbit Molasses.

Molasses and Childhood! Inseparable!

There are two mighty good reasons for giving children Brer Rabbit molasses:

No. 1—they want it—they like it. It makes bread and everything else taste better.

No. 2—(probably only the old folks know this) the U. S. Government shows in Farmer's Bulletin No. 142, that there is greater fuel value, per pound, in molasses than in steak, fish, soup, chicken, bread and milk.

Brer Rabbit and Sliced Bread. Sensible, economical and nourishing. At meals and between meals.

CHILDREN of today aren't a bit different from the little folks of '61.

Give them Brer Rabbit on bread and biscuits. And be sure to let the old folks recall "the days gone by" with Brer Rabbit and pancakes or waffles.

Brer Rabbit is now sold by all first class grocers—there's no doubt but that your own grocer can supply you with Brer Rabbit. Ask him.

A new recipe book of good things as made down South with Brer Rabbit will be sent you on request. Write us today for it.
